Special to the Herald.
Boise, Idaho, July 5.—Fifteen depositions containing denials of Orchard's testimony from witnesses for the defense who could not be brought here, will be offered in the Haywood trial today.
It is rumored that Steve Adams, Orchard's alleged pal, will turn State's evidence and take the stand against Haywood when the prosecution opens in rebuttal.
Frank Comalzer, who was to come here as a witness, jumped from the train in Denver, and fell under the wheels and was killed.
The court convened late in order to give the defense time to summons a minor witness.
Marion Moore, executive board member for Arizona, testified that he met Orchard in 1905, when Orchard asked him to take a letter to Alaska, and to mail it from there. Orchard said he was trying to get rid of a woman.

Don't Fool Yourself

into believing that a comfortable Outing or Summer Suit doesn't wear or hold its shape for any length of time.

The ones we make, prices starting at $15, are lined with fine mohair, shaped by hand, and are as cool during the hot summer months as an Egyptian tunic. They hold their shape because properly built.
